KickoffLabs

Motivate Your Team with These Incentives

This is an extra resource to go along with the original article:
8 Ways to Motivate Your Team

- Implement an employee recognition program where you regularly celebrate milestones and special achievements with cash rewards, extra time off or some other powerful incentive

- Offer flexible hours, especially on holidays and summers

- Allow employees time to work on their passion projects. Consider giving your team back 20% of their workweek (that's one day) to do something that's not work-related

- Send fun care packages to your staff with snacks, toys, T-shirts and other cool trinkets

- Encourage frequent employee feedback

- Consider allowing some of your employees to work from home

- Periodically allow employees to take the afternoon off

- Always say "thank you". Remember to acknowledge a job well done

- Reward the entire team instead of just celebrating the efforts of one or two

- Host an employee recognition week annually where you giveaway all sorts of prizes to all just for being an employee

- Host a pizza party so that your staff can mingle and build a community with each one another